The finished drawings provide motivation for creative writing. The 30 topics in Draw. . . Then Write are presented in three levels of difficulty, allowing you to customize the lessons to the needs of your students. Easiest level-students follow three steps to complete a drawing and then select words for a word box to complete three sentences about the object drawn. More difficult level-students follow three steps to complete a drawing and then write phrases to answer who, what, where, and why questions about the drawing. These phrases are then used to write a sentence. Most difficult level-students are challenged to draw the object in a new situation. They then write a paragraph about the picture, following the writing prompt provided. The instructive pictures utilize basic geometric shapes, which the student composes, step by step, into a complete picture of the topic. The 30 Draw. . . .
