Moler and Wife, February 1912 Today, February 6th, we are on our way to Mexico, and we want to take you with us. We are leaving the Park Row Station of the Illinois Central at 9:40 A. M., and as we walk down Michigan Ave., the chilly wind of this zero day cuts and bites as it sweeps from the sea of ice that now covers frigid Lake Michigan. After due deliberation on account of Mexican war talk, we have decided to make this trip, not that we have a desire for war or to leave the cold, for this has been a splendid winter, but rather that we hear the call from far distant mountains, missions, monasteries and monks, and have a thirst for the romance and historic adventures that abound in them. As we steam away on our pilgrimage that has been long in anticipation, the snow-covered fields of Illinois form a picture in rare contrast to what we expect to see upon...

Reviews

This book will be worth getting. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an extremely basic way which is only right after i finished reading this book through which actually altered me, alter the way i believe.
