Here is a short article from a gentleman that is very highly respected in the State of Minnesota, by those who know of him and of the work he has been doing here for the past two or three years, as landscape gardener for the Park system in St. Paul and Minneapolis. I sent him a card asking if he would give us a report, and this is the answer that he gives: LETTER FROM PROF. CLEVELAND. Wyman Elliott, Esq. , President Minnesota Horticultural Society: Dear Sir: --Your card was duly received, inviting me to make a short comprehensive report on deciduous trees--to be rendered at the meeting of the Soc. (21st and 24th inst. ) Fully appreciating the honor you do me in thus inviting me, I regret my inability to comply, --first because I am so fully occupied with professional labor that I have no time for other occupations--and secondly because I feel myself entirely incompetent to do justice to the subject. I have been a resident of the State but five years, during which my work has been almost exclusively confined to the designing of Parks, and having had no previous experience here I have had to be guided by what I could learn from older residents, and in planting the Parks have confined myself almost exclusively to well known native varieties. My object has been to secure abundance of foliage in the least possible time, and I could not...
