In 17 of the past 20 years, military and Federal personnel have received equal pay increases, yet the Presi-dents budget proposes an across-the-board adjustment of only 2. 6 percent while the military would receive 4. 1 percent in increase. This 2. 6 percent increase is less than the FEPCA formula and fails to close the pay gap between Federal and private sector work-ers. How do you justify the lack of parity in pay And how would you address the competitive pay gap that exists in government Mr. B. I want to first begin by saying I fully support the pro-LAIR posals contained in the Presidents budget. The way that we would justify this is that we are on a war footing right now and a war footing requires us to engage in the allocation of scarce resources. It is important to consider the 2. 6 percent proposed increase in a broader context however....

Reviews

A top quality ebook as well as the typeface used was interesting to see. It usually fails to charge an excessive amount of. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
