Cecil--If Christ raised the standard of morals, was not this with effect 1 Something more eminent, therefore, in general sanctification, is to be expected. To bring forward Abraham, or any other eminent saint, is not to the point. Make the question wider. The New Testament raised the standard of purity. In the New Testament, there is a greater degree of abstaining from the borders of evil May 10, 1802. What Is The Best Way Of Defending The Truth?--Proposed by the Rev. H. Foster. The Rev. H. Foster-- This question arose in my mind from reading Overton. What he did was well done, but such a mode will irritate. It is a question whether more good is not ultimately done by living the truth, and displaying its spirit. Yet Christ exposed the wickedness...
