Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Physical Education in the Public Schools, 1919 The teachers of North Carolina and all school officials should take deeper interest in games and plays for the pupils of the school and of the neighborhood, whether they are in school or not. The bulletin, Physical Education in the Public School, was prepared by the Bureau of Community Service, through the assistance of Miss Sarah Sanders and Mr. J. T. S. Black, who have charge of the section of Physical Education in this Department. Acknowledgment is also made to Miss Faye Davenport, Director of Physical Education, North Carolina State College for Women, for valuable suggestions. It should be the purpose of all school officials to place greater emphasis on Physical Education. To this end, the Bureau of Community Service is beginning, this year, a constructive and definite program of Junior Citizenship work, an important item of which will be an official test for physical fitness. The material in this bulletin is intended for use in work leading up to these tests. It is also intended for general distribution to answer the greatly increased demand and need for such material in the public schools of the State. The bulletin, therefore, has an essential part, not only in the Bureau of Community Service, but also in the State Department of Education, whose policy is to encourage in the schools of the State greater activity among the pupils in promoting Physical Education. Teachers will find in the bulletin suggestions for playground apparatus and where the same may be purchased. It suggests games for track and field athletics, how to organize them, and how to prepare the equipment for them. Suitable...
