Simply by watching her Great Uncle Ichirou, she mimics the delicate and precise kata movements to absolute perfection and masters them perfectly despite her tender age. Her proficiency leads to a fascination with Japanese history, ancient bladed weapons, and archaeology. Through a friend of her father s, she is awarded an internship at an archaeological research firm to supplement the scholarship she so desperately needs to pay for college. Her need for diversion from the frustrations of work and a highly confusing love/hate relationship with her wealthy and dangerously good looking supervisor sends her prowling through the street markets and garage sales off Chicago s West Loop. A mysterious picture of the old castle on the hill will send Sandra on a fantastic journey into a dangerous world where slavery and seduction walk hand in hand and half familiar creatures rule the primeval forest. Join Sandra on her journey through the love and fight...
