Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from American Colonization Society: Addresses Delivered at Its Later Annual Meeting, in Washington, D. C Ladies and Gentlemen: I have been unexpectedly requested by the Executive Committee to occupy the time, this evening, which had been allotted to one or more speakers, who have failed to attend. I cannot do so more profitably than by saying a few words touching the condition and prospects of the Colonization cause. The question is constantly asked, What are you doing - how many emigrants are you sending to Africa? And the invariable reply is, We are doing little or nothing - we are sending few if any emigrants; and yet, never has the success of our scheme appeared more certain than at the present time. The paucity of emigrants and the smallness of our collections are susceptible of easy explanation; so, too, are the grounds of our unhesitating confidence in the future. We are engaged in a contest unparalleled in the history of the world; and the prominence which it has given to the subject of slavery, and the general belief that it will end in the freedom, sooner or later, of all who are now held in bondage, has led many to suppose that the condition of the negro will be so much modified, when peace shall be established, that the separation of the two races, toward which Colonization tends, will be no longer necessary; and that whites and negroes will come to be regarded as equals, socially; or that, at any rate, there will be a fair division between them of the rewards of industry, if not of place and power. That the negro should be credulous...
