Excerpt: . . . 11 vide affordable health insurance to the ununinsured and under-insured in our country. I question whether our enactment of this bill is the right action to take. By allowing an uninsured to set up shop in one State to provide health insurance to a beneficiary in another, this bill introduces a host of problems and risks for the consumer. There is a point at which inadequate health insurance may be just as bad as no health insurance at all for a consumer. This bill may open the door for that dangerous scenario to become a reality. I fear the Health Care Choice Act offers more choice to the health insurer than to the beneficiary. The bill gives health insurers the opportunity to shop around and settle in what State has the fewest consumer protections. It is really a...
