iUniverse, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. William looked like a statue, all marble and confidence. He turned his head up to the camera and smiled, his baby-faced sincerity hiding his devious plans. Con man William Donovan has stooped to a new low. He steals from nursing home residents in the Alzheimer s ward-victims who cannot be used as witnesses for the crimes committed against them. Donovan s disillusioned girlfriend, Alice, and Lucas Tolliver, the security guard still scarred by his experiences in New York City on 9/11, act as his accomplices. Private investigator Marcus Pierce and Felice Morrison, the mysterious granddaughter of one of the nursing home s residents, are determined to put a stop to Donovan s activities. Meanwhile, the groundbreaking work of psycholinguist Rodamas Fowler and his wife, Catherine, a childhood development psychologist from Princeton, may be put in jeopardy when their foster child s mother becomes involved with the residents at the nursing home. With the characters lives tragically intertwining, author David H. Schleicher weaves a chilling tale of love and hate on the streets of New York and Philadelphia. Set against the backdrop of America s war on terror, The Thief Maker explores the duplicity of memory and the loss of one s identity.
