Hermie is now a junior in high school and has won three tournaments in the last year. His hard work is still paying off because his schools bowling team is on target for the state playoffs as well as a district title their first in years. Now that the breakup with his girlfriend Laurie is official, he can pursue a girl he hasn't dated in five years. How will he do it? Only he knows. In addition to dealing with a lousy job, parties, and the constant choice between brisket and fried rice, he has more new distractions that could transform his brain into pudding. Now he has to contend with the lawsuit between his family and a chemical company, how to keep his past a secret, and if he will ever discover the origin of his crooked haircut. Finally, he must eventually participate in his first professional tournament to keep his dreams alive. And if that's not enough, now he has to choose between beef jerky and pork rinds. Will he hold it together? Find out in this exciting second...
